WALKING TOURS

A SELF-GUIDED TOUR FOR THE SPIRIT. There is an element of spiritual pilgrimage for many visitors to Notre Dame. One way to tour some of the principal places for prayer and reflection is to start at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart and to make a small loop that leads eventually to the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes by St. Mary's and St. Joseph's lakes.

- IN THE BASILICA, ask ushers about available tours, times of religious services, and hours for access to the museum. On your own, you'll see many inspiring statues, relics, religious items, and, of course, exquisite artwork on the ceilings, in the stained-glass windows, and more. Masses and the Sacrament of Reconciliation are offered daily. Please respect the quiet and dignity of this special place of worship.
- FROM THE BASILICA go to the Main Building, with the statue of the Blessed Mother standing atop the Golden Dome. Here, you'll also see the historical records of the Laetare Medal annually honoring outstanding Catholics, and the murals underneath the Dome with ethereal figures depicting religion, arts, and sciences.
- PROCEED SOUTH from the Main Building to walk briefly toward the University's main entrance, passing the statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, facing the Golden Dome with hands outstretched, and the statue of bearded University founder Rev. Edward Sorin. C.S.C., facing outward to the world.
- THEN RETURN toward the Basilica's front doors, but turn left. You will first see on your right a statue of Saint Jude and then pass Corby Hall, the home of the campus community of Holy Cross priests and brothers. A famous statue depicts former University President Rev. William Corby, C.S.C., offering absolution to the Union Army as their chaplain at the Battle of Gettysburg.
- NOW PROCEED BEHIND Corby Hall and walk to the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes, a wonderful setting of lit candles and constant visitors bringing prayer and petitions. This beloved landmark is made all the more inspiring by the proximity of St. Mary's Lake and St. Joseph's Lake. You can close your tour by walking to (and around) these tranquil lakes.

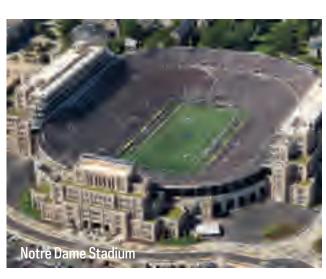

VISIT MAP.ND.EDU TO ACCESS AN INTERACTIVE MAP WHERE YOU CAN SEARCH BY BUILDING, FIND PARKING OR FOOD, TAKE A VIRTUAL TOUR, AND MORE.

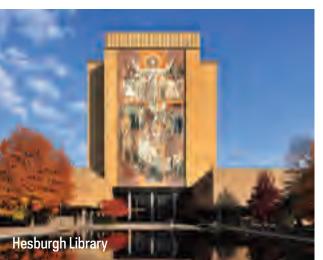

A SELF-GUIDED TOUR FOR THE SPORTS FAN. Notre Dame's facilities for student-athletes are among the most modern and comprehensive for those involved in nearly every sport.

- START your tour at Notre Dame Stadium, opened in 1930, where the celebration of tradition grows every season with the addition of statues or banners and with collective memories of great sports legends, other heroes of the University, and tributes to patriotism and community. Guided tours of the stadium are available. For more information, visit the Murnane Family Ticket Office located inside the main entrance of Purcell Pavilion, or visit und.com/tours.
- JUST EAST OF THE STADIUM is the Joyce Center, whose "double bubble" domes cover a basketball arena and a "fieldhouse" suitable to various sports and events. The domes are connected by a concourse that includes a Sports Heritage Hall with a large collection of Notre Dame sports memorabilia. The Rolfs Aquatic Center is a water sports venue adjacent to the Joyce Center.
- KEEP WALKING EAST beyond the Joyce Center to see a vast area where new facilities for soccer, track, softball, lacross and other sports have sprung up in recent years. These venues, including the Irish Indoor Athletics Center, demonstrate Notre Dame's commitment to men and women student-athletes in a full range of varsity sports who combine academic excellence with a commitment to "play like a champion today."
- JUST NORTH of this complex of outdoor athletic facilities is the Guglielmino Family Athletics Center (the Gug, or "goog"), opened in 2005. Much of its space is dedicated to Fighting Irish football, including coaches' offices and team locker rooms. But the complex also includes an advanced sports medicine section and conditioning/weight room areas for all student-athletes. Next door, the Loftus Sports Center contains an indoor football field
- ACROSS THE STREET to the west of the Gug is the Rolfs Athletics Hall, where the men's and women's basketball teams practice.

• YOU CAN END your tour here or start a trek across campus. First, head north from Rolfs and see, near the Jordan Hall of Science, the Band Building and Pasquerilla Center, the home of Notre Dame's ROTC programs. From there, head west toward the Rockne Memorial recreation center, which sits near St. Mary's Lake.
